

Report on Lecture 7 of Alumni Lecture Series

The Seventh lecture in Alumni Lecture Series was delivered by Prof. Devendra Kumar Agrawal an illustrious alumnus M.Sc. Chemistry Batch of 1973 on February 20, 2023. He spoke on the topic “Translational Research – Opportunities and Challenges”. In his lecture Prof. Agrawal Highlighted the fundamental principles of translational research with the model of bridging translational findings to Public Health. He also discussed the potential challenges for translational research investigators in academic environment and elaborated the opportunities for integrated approach with examples of diseases and highlight the importance of systems-based approach.

Prof. Abhinav Kumar introduced the speaker and highlighted his achievements. After his address, Prof. Abha Bishnoi honoured him by presenting a memento.

Video on YouTube

<https://youtu.be/3vvm8iniHK8>

