

Syllabus

DEFENCE STUDIES

B.A. Part II

(For the Examinations of 2001 & After) here shall be two written papers and a practical examination as follows:

Paper I	:35 Marks
Paper II	:35 Marks
Practical	:30 Marks

Candidates are required to pass both Theory and practical examination separately.

Paper I – Indian Military History.
Unit-I	Effect of Scientific and Technological development on modern War. Land Warfare – Second World War – Causes of the second World war, Armored and Mechanized warfare- Battle of E1. Alamien.
Unit-II	Naval Warfare Development of Sea power, Development of Naval warfare during World War-II, Battle of Midway 1942. Influence of Nuclear development on Naval Strategy and Trends.
Unit-III	Air Warfare Influence of Air Power, development in Air Warfare in World War-II with special reference to the Battle of Britain, Co-operation with Land and Navy, Strategic and Tractical Roles and Limitation, Future Trends.
Unit-IV	Nuclear Chemical and Biological warfare – Historical development, Deterrence and Defence, Future Trends. Partisan and Guerilla warfare - Changing concepts in modern timings. Contemporary Thinkers – Liddell hart, J.F.C. Fuller and Mao Tse Tung.
Paper II – National Defence.
Unit-I	Concept of National Defence and Security and its Necessity. Essential of National Defence – Geostrategy and its influence, Political Strength, Economic Strength, Scientific Technological and Industrial development, Internal Security National Morale and Terrorism.
Unit-II	National Security of India Geostrategy Post Independence Security Problems, Foreign Policy of India, Defence Policy of India, Nuclear Policy of India Borders and Frontiers of India and National Security, Main Defence Industries of India, Role of Transport and Communication in National security, Natural resources and National Security, Elements of National power, and manpower.
Unit-III	World Strategic environment and India. Attitude of Neighbouring Countries. Availability of Political resources for Defence. Power rivalry in Indian Ocean and India's Security. Civil Military relations and its impact on Defence.
Unit-IV	The New Indian Defence progamme. Second Line of Defence. Role of Civil Defence Organisation in National Security. Importance and Role of N.C.C in countrary's defence set-up. Impact of Super powers on India's Defence.